We were delighted to welcome Feidhlim to our school for two weeks in February. Feidhlim lives in China but was in Ireland for three weeks on a family trip. Sincere thanks to the children in 4th class Bronte and Ms. Guiry for making Feidhlim feel so welcome during his time with us.

February 2025

Rena O' Connell: Rest In Peace.

We learned with great sadness of the passing of Rena O' Connell during the February Midterm break. Rena was a former Vice Principal of our school and worked in the school from the very beginning when we first opened our doors in 1964. Rena worked throughout the following decades in the school. During this time the school grew enormously. Rena concluded her career as the first Administrative Deputy Principal. I am sure everyone in the school community wishes Rena's brothers John and Gerard, sister in law Anne and her nephews and nieces the best during this difficult time.

May She Rest In Peace.

The majority of our 6th class children will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation in the beautiful surrounds of St Mary's Church on Saturday the 8th of March.

Heaney and Noland will receive the Sacrament during the ceremony commencing at 10:00 am. Frost and Boland's ceremony starts at 12 midday.

Date for the Diary: March 18th, 2024

4th Class Room 15 with Ms Kenihan and Ms Foley's 6th class paired up and interviewed each other as Gaeilge.

Afterwards, Ms Foley's class taught Room 14 children how to make fortune tellers with Gaeilge questions on them. It was a huge success - a lot of Gaeilge heard in the room during these sessions.
